

Dec. 10, 1944

My darling wife: I love you

Sweetheart, I didn't think I'd be able to write you a letter for a few days, but honey I am going to write you a V-Mail tonite. In a short time honey you'll know where I'm at, & I'll have a new APO number. It's nothing to worry about though honey. Then I'll be in a new different. I'd like to have gotten back with my old outfit, but it's no soap now.

Darling always remember that I'm very much in love with you. I'm just waiting till I get back to you & your great love. Keep your old chin up honey & don't worry too much. I have your picture in my pack & it will bring me through o.k. I must close now honey, so dearest darling of mine goodbye for today. I love you with all my heart honey. Patton is going good now honey. Tell Pop hello & pet Mitzi. I love you honey very much.

Your ever loving husband

Jim