To the one I love with all my heart: my wife

Well dearest, I have a few spare minutes today so I'll write you a few lines & let you know I'm still going strong. And dearest I'm so in love with you & I miss you terribly. If I could only be with you now dearest. Just wait honey till I get home. You are really in for a lot of lost loving up. You take good care of yourself & keep well. And honey, you write me nice long letters too. I'd find time to read your sugar (????).

Dear, I must close now, but dear, remember that I love you with all my heart. Please take good care of yourself darling & I'll be o.k. Tell Pop hello & give Mitzi a big pet.

Your loving husband forever

Jim

Loads of kisses dear
