

Jan. 16, 1945

To my darling wife:

Honey, just a short V-mail today to let you know I'm still o.k. & going strong. Honey I love you so very very much. Always remember dearest that I love you with all my heart, & I'm thinking of you always. Honey, I got your Dec. 19, 20, 21st letters the other day. And one of these days I expect a package from my little honey. The weather is still cold honey, but the sun was out today. Russia is going strong, so come on Stalin.

Nothing new honey, I'll write you a regular letter when I have more time. You understand dear don't you when I don't have much time. I always try to write a little so you won't worry too much. Well dearest so long for today & honey remember I love you with all my heart. Tell Pop hello & pet Mitzi.

Your ever loving husband

Jim