

Jan. 6, 1945

To the sweetest girl in the world: My wife.

Dearest, before I say anything about news, I want to tell you how very much I love you. Oh gee honey, but I'm so in love with you. Yes dear even though we are miles apart, our love still grows stronger and stronger each day. Nothing dear can ever come between us. We are so very much in love with each other. We were made for each other darling. And even though we're miles apart & very lonesome for each other, our love still grows & our strong love for each other will keep our chins up till we can be together again.

Now for the news. Last nite I got 10 of your letters, your X-mas card & 1 letter each from all the family. And dear my morale really rose sky high then. I'm still reading them dear. I took the X-mas card out of the envelope & put it in my Muzette bag for safe keeping. You see darling we can't keep anything with our addresses on. Your latest letter was the 16th of Dec.

Dear I still don't know if you got all of that money I sent you yet. And that broach honey that I sent you wasn't much. It was just something I thought you'd like. So dear you be sure & let me know if you got those 4 M.O. & that check for $50.

Honey as you can see now I'm in Luxemburg. This is where Jerry is trying his last stand I guess. But if you read the papers you can read where we were at before we came here. Yes dear I don't think it will be long now, I have so much that I'd like to tell you honey, but I can't so you'll have to wait till I get home.

I can see where you & Mitzi goes round & round. You had better send me some pictures of you & her both. I bet she is really big now. And dear I really would like to see you in your new purple suit. You know I always liked bright colors.

Dear those papers I told you about in the box I sent my blouse in are very important, so you'd better keep them. Dear facts have to be faced sometime. But don't worry darling those papers are in case the govt. tries to cheat me out of something after the war.

Well darling, I guess I'd better sign off now from my C.P. in Luxemburg. So dearest darling of mine goodbye for now & dearest remember always that I love you with all my heart & I think of you every spare minute I have. Tell Pop hello & give Mitzi a pet for me. Don't worry too much darling. I'll be kept safe from harm if God answers your prayers & He will too. Nothing can ever come between us dear because we're so in love. Bye dear & I love you.

Your ever loving husband

Jim

Loads of kisses honey.