

Luxemburg
Jan 17, 1945

To the one I love: My darling wife.
Well dearest, I'll take a few minutes & let you know how much I love you & I'm still in good shape. Honey, I'm so very much in love with you. You mean everything in the world to me dearest. If I could only be with you right now. Gee honey, I miss you so. Honey, we've been so happy since we have been married just my little honey & I love you all we needed.

Dear, I haven't received any mail for a couple of days now. But I know that you are all right. I think it is harder on you than it is on me. I know you're all right, but you don't know all the time about me. and I know you worry quite abt. That's all O. K. honey, just keep on praying for me & I'll be O. K.

Dear, if I could only tell you what is going on in my mind right now. But you'll soon know what I mean. Honey today, just give me over everything in my mind that you & I have done. Every minute of our married life honey has been happy & I wouldn't trade it for anything.

Will dearest, I must close now.
So dearest darling of mine goodbye & honey I love you with all my heart. Please don't worry too much darling. Take good care of yourself & keep up with the latest news. Tell Pop hello & get Mitzie for me dear.
May God bless you & keep you well & safe till I return home again. Bye darling & I love you so very much As love & kiss honey. your ever loving husband Jim